ADDITIONAL INSTRUCTIONS FOR ATTENDING A TRAINING WEBINAR ON HAZARD ANALYSIS CRITICAL CONTROL POINTS (HACCP) SYSTEMS VALIDATION

As described in FSIS Notice 66-15 Instructions for Training on the Final HACCP Systems Validation Guidelines, inspection program personnel (IPP) (Consumer Safety Inspectors [CSIs] and Public Health Veterinarians [PHVs]) and supervisory personnel (Supervisory Public Health Veterinarians [SPHV], Supervisory Consumer Safety Inspectors [SCSI], the Inspector-in-Charge [IIC], Multi-IPPs Supervisors, and Frontline Supervisors [FLS]) are to complete training on HACCP Systems Validation by either attending a live webinar or watching a pre-recorded training session available on the internet [<https://youtu.be/O3zDT1b0Rbo>] or on DVD at their convenience. This notice contains additional instructions for attending a webinar which is one way to obtain training. Further information on how to watch a pre-recorded training session available on the internet or on DVD can be found in FSIS Notice 66-15. IPP and supervisory personnel are to only complete training during the tour of duty and are to complete training by December 18th, 2015. Supervisors are to provide IPP up to one and a half hours of official regular (01) time to take the training. FSIS will not begin verifying whether large establishments meet all validation requirements, including maintaining in-plant validation data, until January 4, 2016, and will not begin verifying whether small and very small establishments meet all validation requirements until April 4, 2016.

FSIS is providing six training webinars on HACCP Systems Validation. To register for a webinar, go to the link provided below. Please note space is limited. Call-in instructions will be sent after registration closes.
